General marking principles for National 5 English: Critical Reading

This information is provided to help you understand the general principles you must apply when marking candidate responses to questions in this paper. These principles must be read in conjunction with the specific marking instructions for each question. The marking schemes are written to assist in determining the “minimal acceptable answer” rather than listing every possible correct and incorrect answer.

- (a) Marks for each candidate response must always be assigned in line with these general marking principles and the detailed marking instructions for the relevant question.
- (b) Marking should always be positive. This means that, for each candidate response marks are accumulated for the demonstration of relevant skills, knowledge and understanding: they are not deducted from a maximum on the basis of errors or omissions.
- (c) If a specific candidate response does not seem to be covered by either the principles or detailed marking instructions, and you are uncertain how to assess it, you must seek guidance from your team leader.

The marking instructions indicate the essential idea that a candidate should provide for each answer.

Question			Expected response(s)	Max mark	Additional guidance
18.			Extract:  Duror is in conflict with his idyllic surroundings and himself.  Duror is in conflict with the cone gatherers and plots to have them dismissed by planning for Calum to become distressed during the deer drive. He feels their presence in the wood impacts on his wellbeing. Duror is shown to be in conflict with nature as demonstrated by his dogs' fearful response to him. Duror is in conflict with his home life eg avoiding his wife, being criticised by his mother in law. Elsewhere:  Duror is in continual conflict with the CG and plots against them eg has them living in an unsuitable hut, reports them after Calum sets free a trapped rabbit, spreads malicious lies about them, assuages any concerns of LRC and ultimately kills Calum. LRC is also in conflict with the CG after the deer drive, and the incident at the deer drive, and then with Mr Tulloch when she discusses them leaving the wood. She also experiences an inner conflict between her duties as an upper class land owner and her Christian beliefs. The novel relates to the theme of war and the world wide conflict which leads to the CG being in the wood as part of the war effort. This also links to wider ideas about the conflict of good versus evil. Calum personifies Good and has an affinity with nature as being a Christ-like figure. Evil is mainly represented by Duror who has become embittered by his life circumstances, which leads to mental illness. Duror approves of Hitler and his ideals.	8	Up to 2 marks can be achieved for identifying elements of commonality as requested in the question. A further 2 marks can be achieved for reference to the extract given. 4 additional marks can be awarded for similar references to at least one other text/part of the text by the writer. In practice this means: Identification of commonality (2)  (eg: theme, central relationship, importance of setting, use of imagery, development in characterisation, use of personal experience, use of narrative style or any other key element...) from the extract: 1 x relevant reference to technique (1)  1 x appropriate comment (1) OR 1 x relevant reference to idea (1)  1 x appropriate comment (1) OR 1 x relevant reference to feature (1)  1 x appropriate comment (1) OR 1 x relevant reference to text (1)  1 x appropriate comment (1) (maximum of 2 marks only for discussion of extract) from at least one other text/part of the text as above (x2) for up to 4 marks

			The novel explores conflict in nature eg why animals kill each other, as well as showing Duror to be someone who is in conflict with his surroundings. Another conflict is the idea of social class. LRC represents the upper class and endeavours to maintain a civilised society based on inherited position. Neil is deeply opposed to such beliefs and hopes that the war will lead to changes in the way society runs.

Critical Essay

If minimum standards have been achieved, then the supplementary marking grid will allow you to place the work on a scale of marks out of 20.

Once an essay has been judged to have met minimum standards, it does not have to meet all the suggestions for it to fall into a band of marks. More typically, there will be a spectrum of strengths and weaknesses which span bands.

Marking Principles for the Critical Essay are as follows:

- The essay should first be read to establish whether it achieves minimum requirements for technical accuracy and whether it is relevant to the question
- If minimum standards are not achieved, the maximum mark which can be awarded is 9.
- If minimum standards have been achieved, then the supplementary marking grid will allow you to place the work on a scale of marks out of 20.

Note: Using the supplementary marking grid:

Bands are not grades. The five bands are designed primarily to assist with placing each candidate response at an appropriate point on a continuum of achievement. Assumptions about final grades or association of final grades with particular bands should not be allowed to influence objective assessment.
