General Marking Principles for National 5 ESOL Reading and Writing

This information is provided to help you understand the general principles you must apply when marking candidate responses to questions in this Paper. These principles must be read in conjunction with the detailed marking instructions, which identify the key features required in candidate responses.

- (a) Marks for each candidate response must always be assigned in line with these General Marking Principles and the Detailed Marking Instructions for this assessment.
- (b) Marking should always be positive. This means that, for each candidate response, marks are accumulated for the demonstration of relevant skills, knowledge and understanding: they are not deducted from a maximum on the basis of errors or omissions.
- (c) If a specific candidate response does not seem to be covered by either the principles or detailed Marking Instructions, and you are uncertain how to assess it, you must seek guidance from your Team Leader.
- (d) The Marking Instructions indicate the essential idea that a candidate should provide for each answer.
- (e) The answers for each question must come from the original text.
- (f) Where there is a multiple choice question, award 0 marks where a candidate ticks all boxes.
- (g) In addition, markers should use their professional judgement, subject knowledge and experience, and understanding to mark candidate responses.

Section 2 - Writing

Marking descriptors: Everyday Life = 10 marks      Work/Study = 15 marks

For each piece of writing, with reference to content and organisation, vocabulary and spelling, and grammar and punctuation, assess the overall quality of the response and allocate it a mark within the appropriate range.

Check that all required content has been addressed.

A script can be awarded full marks yet still contain a number of basic slips and errors of grammar, spelling and punctuation, etc.

If answers are written in capitals, use legibility as a criterion.

Within the range 13-15 for Work or Study, use your professional judgement in a holistic way to apply a mark between 13 and 15.

The “intended reader” is the reader nominated or intended by the question (eg a friend, a manager, a teacher).
